

Diagnosis and Management of Common Neurological Disorders in Primary Care

Friday 6th February 2015

Centre for Professional Development, Medical School, University of Birmingham

Course Overview

This one day course aims to provide an evidence-based approach to the diagnosis and management of common neurological problems, from headache and stroke, through to Parkinson's disease and multiple sclerosis. It provides a unique opportunity to interact with the experts on a wide range of neurological conditions.

Learning outcomes

- An improved understanding of common neurological conditions
- An improved understanding of when and how to investigate common neurological conditions

Faculty includes

Professor Carl E Clarke
Professor of Clinical Neurology,
University of Birmingham
& Honorary Consultant
Neurologist, Sandwell and West
Birmingham Hospitals NHS
Trust

Registration

£150

Learn more

Amy Partleton
0121 414 2677
a.partleton@bham.ac.uk